

UC San Diego Foundation
Trustee

Ron R. Taylor

Ron's management and operational expertise was developed over the course of a long and successful career. Ten years at Allergan Pharmaceuticals put Ron in many different management roles throughout the organization, and in his six years at Hybritech, Inc., he was responsible for the company's operations and its international sales efforts. In 1987, Ron founded Pyxis Corporation, a venture capital financed business that he took public in 1992. Pyxis specializes in integrated software and hardware systems and services designed to improve efficiency and reduce costs associated with management and delivery of drugs and supplies in hospitals and nursing homes. Ron served as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the company until its purchase by Cardinal Health, Inc. (NYSE: CAH) in 1996 for $1 billion.

After the sale and transition of Pyxis to Cardinal Health, Ron was a General Partner at Enterprise Partners Venture Capital. Ron is a director of three public companies, Watson Pharmaceuticals (NYSE: WPI), ResMed Corporation (NYSE: RMD), and Red Lion Hotels (NYSE: RLH). He is a director of several privately held companies, SafeLife Inc, Aethon, Inc. emn8 Corp., 3E Company, and Asteres Inc. He is also a director of the Century Club, which holds the PGA Tour's Buick Invitational Golf Tournament at Torrey Pines each year.

Ron is a director of the Board of Trustees San Diego Museum of Contemporary Art and is Past Chairman (2004-2006) of the UC San Diego Foundation Board of Trustees. Mr. Taylor holds a BA from the University of Saskatchewan and Masters degree from the University of California, Irvine.
