

Trustee Emeritus

James B. Morris

Jim Morris served as a Trustee of the Foundation for six years, from 2006 to 2012, and is a longtime advocate and supporter of UC San Diego. He currently served as Chair of the UC San Diego Athletics Board, where he has been a devoted member and supporter since 2003. He served on the Campaign Steering Committee for the Campaign for UCSD, and has been a member of Chancellor's Associates for a number of years. He is President of JBM Properties, Inc., an investment firm that has been an active investor in private equities and commercial real estate acquisitions and development. He received his bachelor's from UC Berkeley and his MBA from the University of Southern California.